

Ping Pong Design Challenge

The Situation

Ping pong is a big part of our culture here at Startup, Inc. It's what we do when we need a break in the middle of our work day or when we're hanging out after hours. Some team members are very serious players, but everyone likes to play recreationally.

We wanted to create an app for us to be able to reliably keep track of people's records and to award the higher ranking employees every month with a small celebration!

GOALS of the App:

- Record the results of our matches
- See an overall ranking order of winners
- Keep focus on the MVP so we can build and release quickly
